FALSE

FRIENDS OF THE LABORER.

John Swinton Shows Up the Hypocrisy of Mark Hanna and President McKinley.

And He Might Include Taylor, of Kentucky, and Catspaw Brown, of the Same Place.

John Swinton, the great friend of the laboring man, in communication in the World to-night has the following to say:

"This year the bogus 'friends of labor' are more noisy than usual on the eve of an election. They babble in favor of labor when they see it; sing songs to it, and give three cheers whenever they catch sight of it in overalls or carrying a shovel. They glory in its strength, style and beauty. They say that Adam was a laborer in the Bible. Tubal an ironworker and Noah a ship carpenter."

POLITICAL TRUTHS.

They declare that labor is the source of all wealth sometimes, or one of the sources of it all, and that the poor toiler ought to get enough wages to satisfy him. They warn the noble laborer to vote straight on their side and bring his fellow laborers to the polls with him.

street sharps and Mr. Brutagrudery of the Red Cow—why, these are all deserving of political praise when compared with the frauds who are now striding around as 'friends of labor.'

HYPOCRITICAL FRIENDS.

Mark Hanna has come out as a friend of labor; McKinley has stood up for labor every day during his recent cart-tail campaign for re-election. You might be led to think that labor is the best thing out, the fastest cow in the pasture, the fittest nag in the stable, the biggest frog in the puddle, the tallest giant in any Bowers museum.

Now, why do the political humbugs snivel about labor at this time. Because it has a vote; because it could send them all to Jericho.

Labor can tell what they will do after the coming election by looking at what they have done after other elections in which they flattered it as they are now flattering it. They will tell labor to "get out," will snub it, snigger at it and give it one in the solar plexus; they will scold its appeals, vote against measures in its interest, and pile on its burdens; they will sell it out to its enemies.

Fifty Stories of the Far West.

The Rev. Cyrus Townsend Brady, author of "For Love of Country" and "For the Freedom of the Sea," is writing his experiences and adventures as "A Missionary in the Far West" for early publication in the Ladies' Home Journal. Mr. Brady was stationed in the far West for eight years as a missionary. In that time he had some most stirring and exciting and often humorous experiences, and fifty of the most thrilling and unusual of these he will relate in a series of articles. He has never before told these experiences. He will do so now. They will have to do with encounters with evilones, and blizzards, prairie fires, unusual weddings, funerals and baptisms.

"I had dyspepsia fifty seven years and never found permanent relief till I used Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. Now I am well and feel like a new man," writes S. J. Fleming, Murray Neb. It is the best digestant known. Cures all forms of indigestion. Physicians everywhere prescribe it.

Republican Laws That Keep Alive Trusts.

DO YOU WANT THE TRUSTS?

The almost unlimited power of the railroads when combined is soon to be shown in a general increase in rates on eastbound grain. This raise will soon to be followed by similar advances on dressed meats, packing house products and live stock. A few months ago the beef trust advanced the price of meat to an outrageous figure. The elevator trust advanced the price of wheat and the milling trust advanced the price of flour. Thus the baker was forced to advance the price of bread.

It was a scramble on the part of the trusts to see which could get its hands deepest into the pockets of the prosperous people. The railroads, the kings of all combinations, were not slow to take advantage of the general system of robbery.

Increasing freight charges on packing house and mill products will have the effect of raising the retail prices. In this fashion the general prosperity of the country is being drained off into the pockets of men who are in no sense responsible for it.

It is an easy matter for these bloated drones, with the unlimited power of the railroads behind them, to put a tax upon the people that would make the dingy war tax look like an humble subscription for the heathen. —New York Journal.

General Lee and His Fruitful Hen.

It was General Lee's custom to leave his tent door open in the morning for a sprightly hen that had gone into the egg business promptly and had thus saved her head. When she stepped in, General Lee would put aside his work and walk most deferentially upon the outside until her cackle announced the mysteries of egg, laying at an end. She roosted and rode in his wagon, was an eye-witness of the battles of Chancellorsville and Gettysburg, and was finally sacrificed upon the altar of hospitality at Orange Court House, in 1864. —November Ladies' Home Journal.

The Boer as Pictured by Mark Twain.

"He is deeply religious, profoundly ignorant, dull, obstinate, bigoted, uncleanly in his habits, hospitable, honest in his dealings with the whites, a hard master to his black servant, lazy, good shot, good horseman, addicted to the chase, a lover of political independence, a good husband and father, not fond of herding together in towns out liking the seclusion and remoteness and solitude and empty vastness and silence of the veldt; a man of violent appetite, and not delicate with what he eats; with two I am satisfied with pork and Indian corn and biltong, requiring only that the quantity shall not be stinted; willing to ride a long journey to take a hand in a rude all-night dance, interspersed with vigorous feeding and boisterous jollity, but ready to ride twice as far for a praver-meeting; proud of his Dutch and Huguenot origin and his religious and military history; proud of his race's achievements in South Africa, it bold plunges into hostile and uncharted deserts in search of free soil, unweary by the pioneering and defeated English, also its victories over the natives and British; proud of all on the direct and effusive personal interest which the Deity has always taken in its affairs. He has not read, he can not write; he has one or two newspapers, but he is, apparently, not aware of it; until lately, he had no schools and taught his children nothing; news is a term which has no meaning to him, and the thing itself he cares nothing about. He hates to be taxed, and resents it. He has stood stock-still in South Africa for two centuries and a half, and would like to stand still till the end of time, for he has no sympathy with Uitlander notions of progress. He is hungry to be rich, for he is human; but his preference has been for riches in cattle, not in fine clothes and fine horses and gold and diamonds. The gold and diamonds have brought the godless stranger within his gates, also contamination and broken repose, and he wishes they had never been discovered."

"The great commercial success of England has been due to those same trusts."

"These combinations known as trusts are not a political question at all. They are simply and purely a business question."

"The trusts have the best men in the country at their head. I believe in their organization."

"I think the trusts will result beneficially to the men who work in factories."

"What harm can these trusts do the people of this country?"

"The formation of trusts is a step forward."

"They are not intended to increase profits, but to reduce cost."

"Trust! There's no such thing."

"The story that I have defended trusts in any of my speeches is absolutely false."

"The combination of corporations is simply the evolution of business. I don't know of a trust in the United States."

"I say they are not trusts. If they are, prove it."

"There is not a trust left in the United States. There never were more than about a half-dozen, and they all have been dissolved and converted into large corporations."

"I am not defending trusts, nor am I repudiating a single word or phrase in the Republican platform."

DISCERNING POWERS.

There are some folks who are lacking in discernment and at this time they are with little trouble recognized.

When a party is considering to become its representatives selection is made according to news, soundness, party doctrine, other words, which of the men bring can and will represent us in an faithfulness to their party in their constituency. Back in the counties we have our conventions and from Democrats the majority select delegates to a State or District convention.

To these delegates, we entrust all of our rights and privileges, then they become us and we return to our homes while they attend the State or District convention and there as instructed by us they undertake to carry out the will of the county.

Circumstances may arise which would render the carrying out the will of the people impossible, then they have discretionary powers, it has been often, but whatever our representatives do bind us both legally and morally and the only thing we could do, should they abuse our confidence, would be to administer a rebuke should they ever come before the people.

When delegates have finished their work the result is over and the fight which then confronts us is with an open enemy. We have our forces on the battlefield and so have they, and any man who forsakes the ranks for any independent and goes over to the enemy becomes a deserter. This is the long and short of it and there is no evading the conclusion.

We don't believe Democrats intend to desert the party but when they vote for either Brown or Taylor they do become deserters whether they will or not. Will not discern the difference between selecting candidates from Democrats and selecting a man after he has been chosen by his own party as a representative of Democratic doctrines. At this time men must prove themselves yielding not to any resentful spirit.

Just one week from to-day the voters of this State will be called on to decide as between the two great political parties. They will vote for the maintenance of Democratic or Republican doctrines. The former has ever stood out in favor of the masses and in opposition to the methods of the classes. It is the people on the one side and trusts and combines on the other. Domination or slavery. Voters of Kentucky, when on the morning of the 7th of November you rise from your places of rest look out on the earth and its beauties draw into your lungs the exhilarating air, consider how free they are, then go to the polls and vote for your own freedom and against the rule of the few. That would be right and you would be glad to say to your children, and they to theirs, that you aided in downing the worlds monopolies. The people will rule.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE.
A vote for I. N. Greene is a vote for cheaper school books. Indiana will have no advantage over Kentucky's children with a Democratic legislature. We pay for our school books more than fifty per cent. above the price Indiana gets her books. Indiana pays 65 cents for a book that Kentucky pays $1.00 for. I. N. Greene is opposed to the Book Trust that demands this additional price from us. Mr. Greene opposes all kinds of trusts and the people have in him a friend. A vote for the Democratic party, a vote for Mr. Greene, is a vote to save on books alone 35c every time a 65c book is purchased. Citizens of Menefee and Montgomery vote for your interests.

ANOTHER ANTI - GOEBEL FALSEHOOD NAILED.

The statement that Judge John B. Grider, of Bowling Green, had forsaken the Democratic party is false. Judge Grider made a speech at Bowling Green in which he said he was for Senator Goebel. From the time he made his announcement he had been using his influence for the entire Democratic ticket including Mr. Goebel and would continue to do so.

THEN VOTE.

When you enter your booth on November 7th, after the curtain has fallen behind you and no eye save that of Deity beholds your action, ask yourself this question; is it better to aid trusts and Hainnism by voting for Taylor or his aid, or shall my influence be with the people? Then vote.

The sun will rise on the morning of November 7th the same as on other days. In old Kentucky it will approach the meridian amid shouts for Democracy and as it sinks behind the western hills loud and long will be exciting shouts for Democracy and for liberty. It will be the voice of the people.

The Republicans are trying to keep James O'Connell off of the city ticket for Councilman in the 1st Ward and Andy Cline and Charlie Fizer off of the ticket in 4th Ward. It is no contention of ours and they can just fight it out.

Those pure fellows going about telling the people of what a monstrous bad man Goebel is, speaking themselves hoarse, reminds a fellow of the devil quoting scripture. Billie Owens was here and made his speech.

HE IS AFTER YOU, LITTLE BROWNIE!

You have heard of the story of the spider and the fly and of the end of Mr. Fly.

You have also heard of the story of the Palmer and Buckner ticket and its sad death.

History repeats itself and is another sad mishap. The spider got the fly and Taylor gets Brown.

REPUBLICANS GETTING RIGHT.

Mr. Valentine Moulder a prominent Republican, of near Bowling Green, a member of the G. A. R. and a wealthy farmer, together with his three sons have forsaken the Republican party and come over to Democracy. There are others. Among other things he says in his card:

"I believe that the Democratic party represents the interests of the people and stands for their sovereign rights; that the Republican party with its present policies and tendencies, is not in any respect any longer a party of the people therefore, I feel it my imperative duty to align myself with the Democratic party and cast my vote in future elections for its leaders and nominees, believing that in so doing I will assist in preventing the further encroachments of the colossal trusts and combines upon the rights and interests of the people. If I live until the November election I shall cast my vote for the entire Democratic ticket; from Goebel on down."

It is said and goes without denial that John Young Brown did not support P. Wat Hardin for Governor in 1895 and yet his face will appear on the ballot representing honest Democracy. Think of this on this entering the booth at your voting precinct and then vote as you feel.

John Young Brown is making a terrible mess of his campaign work. He thought the Goebel law a good thing when he stumped for Judge Hobson, but now it is monstrous bad. Some of the best citizens of Kentucky heard the ex-Governor delighting over this just Democratic Election Law and now the ex-Governor has another blunder to worry over.

The Democratic state ticket is a good one, and will be elected.

FLOWERS FOR GOEBEL— COLORED PEOPLE THE DONORS.

One evening last week in Louisville as Senator Goebel advanced to the platform where he was to address the people he was met by a colored man, who represented the Independent Colored Voters League, and who presented him with a large bunch of white roses. In his speech which followed the Senator acknowledged the gift.

Governor Goebel (we had as well be getting used to the title) took advantage of this opportunity to say he was for the separate coach law and that if he was elected Governor would see that colored people were provided with the same kind of coaches as the whites are. That it had been Taylor's business to see that this was done but for reasons of his own he had not done it.

Governor Goebel was warmly applauded by both the colored and white people. This demonstration of the colored people is an indication that they have determined to shake off the shackles of political slavery and will vote the Democratic ticket, not because they have been invited to do so by the Democrats, but because they have a right to freedom of suffrage, and because they believe Democrats stand for what is best for the entire people.

"I AM ASTONISHED!"

You Are?—No More Than We.

"That a man of your standing and intelligence should vote for Bill Goebel," said a Brown Democrat to a regular Democrat who retorted this way: "And I am astonished that you would enter a convention, participate in it and then swear you will not vote for the nominee of that convention. When you entered that convention you morally bound yourself to support the nominee didn't you? Are you doing it now by following an independent?"

I AM A DEMOCRAT! YOU ARE?

Some say I would vote the Democratic ticket were it not for that county convention and the methods of the Louisville convention! To which we have a word: Col. A. W. Hamilton was not nominated by that convention he was the only man asking for the nomination. Everything was harmonious. Will you vote for him? He is a Democrat and has been free with his time for party work and liberal with his money. Democrats here is a man upon whom you may unite. What will you do?

Senator Goebel will be at Louisville next Monday night and close the campaign in a grand rally at Music Hall. Louisville will give the Democratic ticket 6,000 majority.

Don't forget we have a Democratic city ticket to be voted for and put your stamp under the rooster. Be a Democrat through and through!

The way reports go even Taylor is not of the sanctified kind.

Senator William Goebel will be Governor of Kentucky.

The vision of the stork is one which brightens the eyes and quickens the heart beat of every young man. Yet often the vision is never realized, and as the laughter of infant years fades from without into the childless home the eyes grow dim and the heart grows hungry.

It often seems that childlessness is due to conditions which may be corrected. Many women have found that the vitality and vigor imparted by Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription to the womanly organs, has been the one thing needed to fulfill the joy of motherhood. This famous medicine is not a cure-all, but a specialist's prescription, having as a single aim the cure of diseases peculiar to women.

Sick or weak women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., by letter. Free of charge, the doctor will answer all questions, official examinations, and local treatments, generally considered necessary by inexperienced practitioners. All letters are held as strictly private and carefully confidential. Each answer is sent in a perfectly plain envelope.

There is neither alcohol nor other intoxicant contained in "Favorite Prescription," and it is absolutely free from opium, cocaine and all narcotic drugs.

"My wife was sick for over eight years," writes Alfred C. Palmer, Esq., of Alton, Grundy County, Iowa. "She had been treated by two physicians and had not improved. At last I read, in one of your Menstruals, a story in which you mentioned that you had cured a case like hers, and we decided to try Dr. Pierce's prescription. I sent to the drug store and got one bottle and the first dose gave me some relief. She had not slept any for three nights, being sure that it would harm her, and now she is much better, and when she had taken the sixth bottle she was cured. We now have a fine boy at our house."

GEN. LEE ON CUBA.

People of the Island Slowly But Surely Rebuilding Their War-Wasted Homes.

INDUSTRIAL SITUATION IMPROVING.

The General Thinks the Time is Not Ripe Yet, However, for a Purely Cuban Government.

The Cubans Are Tractable and Quiet and the Revolution Has Given Them Self-Respect and Self-Reliance—Money Gradually Going Into Cuba.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—Gen. Fitzhugh Lee, who arrived in Washington Saturday night from New York, in an interview Sunday, said that the people of Cuba are steadily improving under the existing protectorate of the United States, and are slowly but surely rebuilding their war-wasted homes and resuming their crippled fortunes.

Life and property are secure in Cuba owing largely, he said, to the salutary restraint exercised by American military authority. He thinks the time not ripe yet, however, for a purely Cuban government. "Cuba," said Gen. Lee, "is improving. The Cubans are tractable and quiet and the revolution has given them self respect and self-reliance."

"Their impulses are generally in the right direction, but of course, both in the theory and practice of self-government, they are wholly without experience. There is among certain Cubans a deep seated prejudice against some men who, the Cubans think, oppressed Cubans under Spanish rule, and if given a free rein the Cubans would make short work of them."

The United States government is pledged to grant independence to Cuba after the island has been pacified, and I believe that promise should be fulfilled just as swiftly as we can in reason and justice. The industrial situation is improving and money is gradually going into Cuba, but nothing like as fast as it would if investors were assured that property would remain safe

FUNERAL PARADE.

The Remains of Gen. Henry Taken to the Pennsylvania Train That Conveyed It to Washington for Interment.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—The largest and most impressive military funeral parade since the death of Gen. William T. Sherman took place Sunday morning when the body of Gen. Guy V. Henry was removed from his residence to the Pennsylvania train that conveyed it to Washington, where interment will be made in Arlington cemetery. The services at the residence were conducted by Rev. John Huske, of St. Thomas Protestant Episcopal church, and consisted of simple prayers, lasting not more than ten minutes. The coffin was partially covered with a silk American flag. Numerous floral pieces were on the mantels and a few on the foot of the coffin. The immediate family, relatives and the most intimate friends were present at the house service.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—The funeral train bearing the remains of the late Gen. Henry arrived here from New York at 6:10 o'clock Sunday night. With a platoon of light artillery as escort, the body was taken to St. John's Episcopal church, where it will lie in state under a guard of honor furnished by the Guy V. Henry post of the Loyal Legion until the funeral Monday.

FLOODS AND LANDSLIDES.

Devastating Rainstorms Sweep Over Jamaica, Leaving Much Damage—Fearing for the Safety of Shipping.

KINGSTON, Jamaica, Oct. 30.—Reports of the severe rain storm that has swept the country arrive from various points and confirm the fear that extensive damage had been done. The Rio Cobre inundated Spanish towns, doing considerable harm, particularly to the power plant of the electric railway. The railroad lines are interrupted and most of the highways are impassable in consequence of the floods and landslides.

Advices from the town of Black River report great damage to shipping and warves there, as well as serious injury to crops.

A Ward liner has been delayed four days. The United States transport Burnside has been kept crailing outside the harbor and fears are entertained for the safety of the fleet of Furniture Factories Pool Their Issues.

ROCKFORD, Ill., Oct. 30.—At a meeting at which representatives of all the furniture factories in Rockford were present, the American association of case work manufacturers has been organized with A. Peterson as president. The projectors deny that they are a trust, explaining the object is to do away with ruinous competitive price cutting.

Miners' Strike Ends.
CHARLESTON, W. Va., Oct. 30.—The strike of coal miners in the New river district has been officially declared off. The strike started six weeks ago for an advance of five cents a ton. The advance was granted by only 15 of the 45 mines in the field. It is not thought that the district will be fully at work again before January, as many miners have left during the strike for the west.

Coal Famine Threatened.
HUBBARD, S. D., Oct. 30.—A coal famine is threatened in this part of the state. There is a shortage of 300,000 tons, and wholesale dealers find it almost impossible to get their orders filled. One reason for the shortage is the fact that it is nearly impossible to get cars, owing to the heavy business being transacted by the roads.

The 30th Kansas Leaves for Home.
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 30.—The 30th Kansas volunteers, who were mustered out for the shortage in the first half of the year, left for home Sunday in a special train made of three sections and provided by the people of the Sunflower state. Brig. Gen. Funston and H. J. Allen, private secretary of Gov. Stanley, accompany the regiment.

General Election in Switzerland.
BERNE, Switzerland, Oct. 30.—The general elections to the national and national council of Switzerland, were held Sunday, but resulted in no change in the political color of the government.

Death of the Marquis of Townshend.
LONDON, Oct. 30.—John Villiers Stewart Townshend, marquis of Townshend, formerly liberal member of parliament for Tanworth, whose ancestors distinguished themselves at the siege of Cadix, the battle of Colenso and the surrender of Quebec died Sunday in his 64th year.

Senator Goebel Talks to the Germans.

Thursday night in Louisville Senator Goebel spoke to an audience of about 1,000 people; mostly Germans at Turner's Hall. All the standing room was occupied. His introductory remarks were in German and the body of his speech was in English. Goebel will give the German vote. His crowds in Louisville are an indication of how the cat will jump.

President Issues a Thanksgiving Proclamation.

"A national custom dear to the hearts of the people calls for the setting apart of one day in each year as an occasion of special thanksgiving to Almighty God for the blessings of the preceding year. This honored observance acquired with time a tenderer significance. It enriches domestic life. It summons under the family altar the absent children to glad reunion with those they love.

"Seldom has this nation had greater cause for profound thanksgiving. No great pestilence has invaded our shores. Liberal employment was upon labor. Abundant crops have rewarded the efforts of the husbandman. Increased comforts have come to the home. The nation's finances have been strengthened and public credit has been sustained and made firmer. In all branches of industry and trade there has been an unequalled degree of prosperity, while there has been a steady gain in the moral and educational growth of our nation. Churches and schools have flourished. American patriotism has been exalted. Those engaged in maintaining the honor of the flag with such signal success have been in a large degree spared from disaster and loss. An honorable peace has been concluded with a foreign nation with which we were at war, and we are now on friendly relations with every power on earth.

"The trust which we have assumed for the benefit of the people of Cuba has been faithfully advanced. There is marked progress towards the restoration of healthy industrial conditions and under wise sanitary regulations the island has enjoyed unusual exemption from the scourge of fever. The hurricane which swept over our new possessions of Porto Rico, destroying the homes and property of the inhabitants, called forth the instant sympathy of the people of the United States, who were quick to respond with generous aid to the sufferers.

"While the insurrection still continues in the island of Luzon, business is resuming its activity, and confidence in the good purposes of the United States is being rapidly established throughout the Archipelago.

"For these reasons and countless others, I, William McKinley, President of the United States, do hereby name Thursday, the thirtieth day of November next, as a day of general thanksgiving and prayer, to be observed as such by our people on this continent and in our newly acquired islands, as well as by those who may be at sea or sojourning in foreign lands; and I advise that on this day religious exercises shall be conducted in the churches or meeting places of all denominations in order that in the special features of the day its real significance may not be lost sight of, but fervent prayers may be offered to the Most High for a continuance of the divine guidance, without which man's efforts are in vain, and for divine consolation to those whose kindred and friends have sacrificed their lives for country.

"I recommend, also, that on this day so far as may be found practicable, labor shall cease from its accustomed toil and charity abound toward the sick, the needy and the poor.

"Witness whereof, I have set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed."

Russia is to strengthen her naval force in the Pacific, and the German fleet in this connection with the rumored Ohio-Japanese alliance.

The Official Ballot.

On the ballots to be used at the November election will be printed each group of names under the party name or title or device that appears above it.

First on the left side of the ballot will be printed the device of the Democratic party, a rooster, and its title and group of candidates beneath it.

Next on the right thereof the device of the House of Representatives, Democratic party, the portrait of Hon. John Young Brown and Hon. P. P. Johnson, and its name and group of candidates beneath it.

Next the device of the Republican party, a log cabin, and its group of names beneath it.

Next, and in the order named, the device of the People's party, the plow and hammer, and its group of names beneath it; the device of the Prohibition party, a Phœnix, and its group beneath it; the device of the Social-Labor party, an arm and hammer, and its title and group of names beneath it.

Want a Larger Army.

The president and the Republican party still want a large standing army. I believe that a large standing army will be not only a burden to the American people, but would be a menace to liberty itself. If you want to know the measure of a large army, go to France and witness the proceedings of the Dreyfus trial. There was an innocent man convicted because the army demanded it, and the president had to pardon him because the conviction outraged the sense of justice throughout the civilized world.

And now, when we have pressing upon us this demand for a large standing army, this measure that will not only burden the taxpayers, but menace American liberty, we are asked to stop and settle the details of a state convention before we relieve this nation from this threatened evil.

The Republican party has gone a step further. It is inflicting a colonial policy. It is inflicting the doctrine of empire. Mr. McKinley, in his speech at Minneapolis the other day, said that he had no doubt that we would permanently hold the Philippine Islands; he had no doubt that we would prove a great blessing to us, and then he used the sentence to which I want to call your attention: "That congress will provide for them a government which will bring them blessings, which will promote their material interests as well as advance their people in the path of civilization and intelligence. I confidently believe that this change that sentence a little. In the place of 'congress' put 'parliament,' and after 'them' put 'the colonists,' and you have a sentence that would have expressed the confident belief of King George when we rebelled from the mother country. (Applause.)

"King George confidently believed that parliament would provide for the colonists a government which would bring them blessings, and which would promote their material interests as well as advance their people in the path of civilization and intelligence."

Do you tell me that that Louisville convention received its authority from force? You are here in this state and can remedy that hereafter; but when this nation announces before the world that it has abandoned the principles of a republic and endorses the principles of empire, you will find it more difficult to retract your steps.

And then want to ask how much more they favor an imperial policy in the Philippine Islands can find any fault with the application of force anywhere at home or abroad. (Laughter and applause.)

HAT MADE OF GLASS.

The Costliest Piece of Headgear is Worn by a Man.

The costliest hat in the world is made of spun glass. It cost $1,100. It is owned by Samuel Sherard, of Pittsburgh.

Mr. Sherard attracted considerable attention upon the deck when he started on his trip around the world. He was of average age and attractions, and might have passed unnoticed in the throng of voyagers if it had not been for his hat. Some wharf rats distended their mouths with their fingers and whistled shrilly that almost forgotten classic: "Where Did You Get That Hat?"

Then everybody looked.

At first glance the hat seemed to be made of finely woven brown straw. Closer scrutiny showed that it had certain reflective qualities. Mr. Sherard good-naturedly passed it around among the inquisitive. One man guessed that it was prepared silk. Another hazarded asbestos.

Then Mr. Sherard explained. "It has considerable elasticity and it is as hard to break as an ordinary panama. I have owned it for five years. It is valuable chiefly as a means of making acquaintances." Mr. Sherard bowed gallantly. "I value it chiefly as a curio. It is too hot to be worn with much comfort. To be frank, I wear it because, in a good-natured moment, I promised the inventor to do so."

"It was made by an old Alsatian at Pittsburgh. He invented a process for spinning and weaving glass. His idea was to produce a non-inflammable fabric for window curtains and other draperies. It was found that the stuff couldn't be made attractive to the eye. It was too stiff and ungraceful, and the expense put it out of consideration for theatrical drop curtains, the purpose for which it might have been adapted.

The hat cost me $1,100. It is the most expensive article of wearing apparel I possess. I have never tested its acoustic properties, but I presume one might talk through it as well as through any other hat." — N. Y. Journal.

WASTED ENERGY.

Some of the Useless and Absurd Things People Do.

Do you know a man who twiddles his thumbs all the time he walks to work, or his fingers, or possibly the watch chain which he wears? Or, he does not do any of these things, he does something equally annoying.

It may be that you yourself, when you sit thinking what you will say next to your shorthand clerk, beat time with the tips of your finger nails while she taps her foot.

All these little idiosyncrasies the neurologist classes as physical automatisms and regards as energy wasted.

Probably you will find yourself avoiding or stepping on tacks or counting figures in patterns or the posts flying past the windows, grouping uniformly recurring shapes in wall paper or bisecting lines and rows of figures.

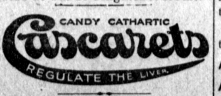

The great Napoleon counted windows as he walked abroad, and if he happened to lose count his temper was completely upset for the rest of his walk.

Everybody knows the story of poor old Dr. Johnson, who counted poets, and many sad, insane men are doing the same to-day.

One should avoid as much as possible this tendency of mind and body to dissipate valuable energy.—Pearson's Weekly.

A Strange Passion.

George Selwyn had a strange passion for seeing dead bodies, especially those of his friends. He would go any distance to gratify this pursuit. Lord Holland was laid up very ill at Holland house shortly before his death. George Selwyn sent to ask how he was, and whether he would like to see him. "Oh, by all means!" Lord Holland answered. "If I'm alive to-morrow I shall be delighted to see George, and I know that if I am dead he will be delighted to see me."

Governor Reilly has offered a reward of $50.00 for the capture of Jas. Freeman, a fugitive from Estill county, wanted for stabbing Curtis Richardson and Steve Gum and shooting a nineteen-year-old girl. Freeman served a term in 1893.

Bookkeeping.

Prof. T. F. Leary, the teacher in practical bookkeeping, is here for the purpose of getting up another class, and concerning his teaching we just say this: A man or woman, boy or girl, with any kind of a head on them in a single course of one-half a month of his training is prepared to take charge of any man's set of books and earn a good salary. What the Prof. imparts in fifteen nights is more practical than the training of six months at a commercial school at the cost of six months time and at least an outlay of $150.00. Young men prepare yourselves for business. Such opportunities are rare. See the Professor at Punch & Gatewood's store.

Promotion.

Mr. S. R. Sadler, who has had charge of the Sun Life Insurance Co. at this place and Winchester, has been made Superintendent at Lexington, and will make that place his home. We regret to lose Mr. Sadler and wife from our city. Mr. Sadler will be succeeded by Mr. Russell Johnson, another strong business man. We welcome Mr. Johnson to our city.

The Eagle King of All Birds.

Is noted for its keen sight, clear and distinct visions. So are those persons who use Sutherland's Eagle Eye Salve for weak eyes, eyes sore eyes of any kind or granulated lids. Sold by all dealers at 25 cents.

Homes Wanted.

We would advise our citizens with money to build some modern residences. There is a demand here for good homes. Lots can be purchased in the Biggs addition, or in the Holt addition, or in the Peter's addition or the Bette's addition. In any of these places there are choice lots, with streets opened and the town on both sides and all around.

Lung Irritation

Is the forerunner to consumption. Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey will cure it, and give strength to the lungs that a cough or a cold will not settle there. Twenty-five cents at all good druggists.

Bank Assigns.

E. D. Sayre, of Lexington, an aged banker, died on Sunday of last week. On Friday the banking firm of D. A. Sayre & Co., of which he was the head, made an assignment.

$70,000,000 Distributed.

The late Cornelius Vanderbilt had a will. The estate amounts to $70,000,000. His second son, Alfred Gwynne, got between forty and fifty million dollars. Cornelius, Jr., will receive only $1,500,000, of which $1,000,000 will be held in trust. Alfred is going to give of his inheritance to make him equal with the other children, or about $750,000. Mrs. Vanderbilt receives $2,000,000 in cash and an income for life of $250,000 per year. The residence and other realty goes to the widow and younger children. Chauncey M. Depew gets $200,000; Vanderbilt University $50,000 and Yale College $100,000. Other religious and charitable institutions are remembered kindly.

Most Certainly.

The way to make stock move is to name a price a little below bottom. We have the goods—a big stock of desirable ware and they must get out of the way for our holiday goods now coming, hence our 30 days sale at record-breaking prices. Come quick. W. W. REED & Co.

MARRIAGES.

GATEWOOD-HOOD.
 Mr. J. Roger Gatewood, of this city, and Miss Katherine Gay Hood, of Louisville, were married in this city on Tuesday, Oct. 24, 1899 at 1 o'clock, at the home of Dr. G. M. Warner. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. P. McFerrin. At once went to Paris to attend the Barnes-Russell wedding and with this couple took a trip to Eastern cities. The groom has been reared in this country, and is the son of Mrs. Thomas Thomas. He is a member of the firm of PUNCH & GATEWOOD and is popular in social and business circles. The bride has frequently visited in this city, is a sister of Mrs. Henry Reese, and is a woman of great beauty, pleasing disposition, stylish and graceful. On their return they will be at home at Mrs. M. W. Chorn's on Mayville street. We extend our congratulations.

BARNES-RUSSELL.

DEATHS.

Mrs. Alice Arnold, of Richmond, died of typhoid fever on Oct. 23. She was a teacher in the public school.

M'LEAN.
 On Sunday morning, October 29, 1899, Mrs. L. H. McLean, in her 29th year, died at her home on the Paris pike. She left an infant two weeks old. A few days after its birth she was paralyzed on one side, after which time her condition was regarded as hopeless. The funeral service was conducted on Monday morning at the residence by B. W. Trimble. The burial was in Macphail.

The deceased was the oldest child of Peter Greenwald and wife, of Spencer. She was married to Mr. McLean January 29, 1888. To them have been born 8 children, of whom six are living.

She was a member of Antioch Christian Church, and had been an earnest Christian since her 14th year.

The sympathy of friends and the family attend Mr. McLean in his great loss, especially since he has the care of so many little ones. We commend him to the guidance of a loving and merciful Heavenly Father, that he and his dear children may meet the wife and mother in the home above where there is no more sickness and death. We extend our sympathy to the members of the family.

Nature has just one pigment on her palette with which she produces all the marvelous tints of beauty, and that one pigment is the blood. The shell-like pink beneath the deeper red, the delicate rose of the cheek, the cherry ripeness of the lips, the iridescent brilliancy of the eyes are all produced by the blood. Just as the permanence of a beautiful painting will depend upon the purity of the colors with which it is painted, so the permanence of beauty will depend upon the purity of the blood.
